

Men Who Have Places for Themselves in the World's Activities

EDMOND AUDEMARS.
One of the best known of the world's watch-makers. He is a young man, a Swiss, and weighs only 100 pounds. He is to fly in a few minutes made entirely of metal.

ARCHDUKE FRANCIS FERDINAND.
Heir to the throne of Emperor Francis Joseph, and his morganatic wife, Princess Hohenberg.

RICHARD BURTON HALDANE.
Great Britain's Secretary of War (on the left), talking to the Lord Mayor of Liverpool. Mr. Haldane is to be raised to the peerage as a viscount.

COSMO GORDON LANG.
Archbishop of York, next to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the highest dignitary in the Church of England, will have a high place in the coronation ceremonies.

CHARLES MARTIN HALL.
Inventor of the process of manufacturing aluminum by electrolysis. Mr. Hall was born in Oberlin in 1863, and was graduated from Oberlin in 1885.

BISHOP DAVID H. GREER.
Head of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York City, as he appeared at the consecration ceremonies at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, April 19.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL.
Who has resigned his position as American ambassador to Germany.

CHARLES R. CRISP.
Holds to Speaker Champ Clark the relationship which Asher C. Hinds held to Speaker Cannon. Mr. Crisp is clerk at the Speaker's desk and his right hand man on parliamentary procedure.

W. S. KENYON, THE NEW SENATOR FROM IOWA.

ROGER A. PRYOR.
Now of New York, but in former days of Dixie, was a prominent figure in the Southland during the great war. Then he went to New York and made a name for himself at the bar, being elected to the bench. He is now eighty-three years old.

DR. DANIEL K. PEARSONS.
of Chicago, is the man who has been famous for years for his attempts to live up to Andrew Carnegie's maxim that "to die rich is to die disgraced."

JOSEPH BRUCKER.
Austro-American, who will try to fly across the Atlantic next fall in his dirigible balloon Suchard.

ROBERT W. SPEER.
Former Mayor of Denver, prominently mentioned as possible United States Senator from Colorado.

WALTER WILLIAMS.
Is dean of the School of Journalism, University of Missouri.

MONSIEUR THEOPHILE DELCASSE.
Is one of the most prominent of French statesmen of the present day.

ISIDOR STRAUS.
Member of the well-known family of merchants, which includes Nathan Straus and Oscar Straus, former ambassador to Turkey.
(Pictures Copyrighted by American Press Association.)

JOHN D. KERNAN.
Mentioned for United States Senator from New York, is a prominent lawyer of Utica, N. Y., and a son of former United States Senator Kernan.

JOSEPH C. SIBLEY.
Well-known former Pennsylvania Congressman and capitalist, an account of whose very serious illness it is believed that the suit to compel an auditing of his election expenses will be dropped.